

Lincoln Land Community College

December 2015 Award Winners

Nominee: Dr. Janice Badgett, Nursing Professor, Health Professions

Nominator: Valerie Wright, Associate Dean of Nursing, Health Professions

Thanks for all of your help with the ACEN self-study! Your contributions (especially reviewing) to the document were truly invaluable!

Nominee: Dr. Pam Bradley, Nursing Professor, Health Professions

Nominator: Valerie Wright, Associate Dean of Nursing, Health Professions

Thanks for all of your help with the ACEN self-study! Your contributions to the document were truly invaluable!

Nominee: Shelby Bedford, Program Assistant, Student Success

Nominator: Karie Longhta, Associate Vice President, Finance; Robin Ackman, Student Accounts Manager, Finance

In an effort to minimize the number of students the college would drop for non-payment, the college launched a calling campaign to remind our students that tuition was due on Dec. 2. There were 900+ students who needed to be called individually. With the number of students that needed to be contacted, we asked for assistance. Because Shelby agreed to help, we completed the calling campaign. As a result, the college dropped the fewest number of students for non-payment for a spring semester. Her actions demonstrated that while we all work separately, Lincoln Land staff comes together as a team when needed. We could not have done it without you. We appreciate your assistance!

Nominee: Kenny Bridgeford, Grounds Maintenance Worker, Facilities Services

Nominator: Valarie Howse, Admission & Registration Services Representative, Student Services

I wanted to give a shout out to Kenny Bridgeford for his dedication and help in getting things done for our department. He helped me out a great deal when we were getting the Admission/Records/Registration department together. A lot of moving and switching around took place and you stuck with me and helped us get it together. Thank you so much for your help and going that extra mile for us! Couldn't have accomplished anything without your help! Much appreciated!

Nominee: Dr. Victor Broderick, Dean, Social Sciences

Nominator: Tara Walk, Criminal Justice Associate Professor, Social Sciences

Victor went above and beyond to make sure a guest speaker of mine was paid the honorarium in a timely manner. When completing the paperwork, the speaker did not sign the bottom of one of the forms. Victor took the paperwork to my speaker so he was not inconvenienced with a drive back to campus. Great job!

Nominee: Gloria Buhr, Nursing Professor, Health Professions

Nominator: Valerie Wright, Associate Dean of Nursing, Health Professions

Thanks for all of your help with the ACEN self-study! Your contributions to the document were truly invaluable!

Nominee: Michelle Burger, Career Development Professional, Advising/Counseling/Career Services

Nominator: Karie Longhta, Associate Vice President, Finance; Robin Ackman, Student Accounts Manager, Finance

In an effort to minimize the number of students the college would drop for non-payment, the college launched a calling campaign to remind our students that tuition was due on Dec. 2. There were 900+ students who needed to be called individually. With the number of students that needed to be contacted, we asked for assistance. Because Michelle agreed to help, we completed the calling campaign. As a result, the college dropped the fewest number of students for non-payment for a spring semester. Her actions demonstrated that while we all work separately, Lincoln Land staff comes together as a team when needed. We could not have done it without you. We appreciate your assistance!

Nominee: Shanda Byer, Director, Admission/Records/Registration

Nominator: Robin Ackman, Student Accounts Manager, Finance

Shanda consistently provides assistance to Student Accounts. Most recently, she volunteered to provide training on a Colleague module that has enhanced our electronic communication with students. Using this module, Colleague creates a record of the information the college sends to the student via email. Additionally, Shanda helped call during the college's calling campaign to remind students of the tuition due date. Her actions demonstrate that even though our work may be very different, LLCC staff comes together as a team when needed. Thank you, Shanda! We appreciate everything you do!

Nominee: Elyse Calhoun, Accounts Receivable/Collection Technician, Finance

Nominator: Karie Longhta, Associate Vice President, Finance; Robin Ackman, Student Accounts Manager, Finance

In an effort to minimize the number of students the college would drop for non-payment, the college launched a calling campaign to remind our students that tuition was due on Dec. 2. There were 900+ students who needed to be called individually. With the number of students that needed to be contacted, we asked for assistance. Because Elyse agreed to help, we completed the calling campaign. As a result, the college dropped the fewest number of students for non-payment for a spring semester. Her actions demonstrated that while we all work separately, Lincoln Land staff comes together as a team when needed. We could not have done it without you. We appreciate your assistance!

Nominee: Jill Campbell, Faculty Librarian, Library

Nominator: Valerie Wright, Associate Dean of Nursing, Health Professions

Thanks for all of your help with the ACEN self-study! Your contributions to the document were truly invaluable!

Nominee: Gaye Catlin, Administrative Assistant to the Dean, Health Professions

Nominator: Dr. Cynthia Maskey, Dean, Health Professions

With Ashley on leave, Gaye Catlin is doing double duty without complaint or missing a beat. Ashley did a wonderful job of planning for her leave but it still leaves a great deal (understatement) of work to be done for both nursing and allied health. I cannot begin to say how much the whole department appreciates Gaye for her excellent work!

Nominee: Gaye Catlin, Administrative Assistant to the Dean, Health Professions

Nominator: Valerie Wright, Associate Dean of Nursing, Health Professions

Gaye - thanks for all of your help in Ashley's absence. There is NO WAY I could do all of this without you!! You are a ROCK STAR!!!

Nominee: Brittany Clark, Retention Specialist, Student Support Services

Nominator: Karie Longhta, Associate Vice President, Finance; Robin Ackman, Student Accounts Manager, Finance

In an effort to minimize the number of students the college would drop for non-payment, the college launched a calling campaign to remind our students that tuition was due on Dec. 2. There were 900+ students who needed to be called individually. With the number of students that needed to be contacted, we asked for assistance. Because Brittany agreed to help, we completed the calling campaign. As a result, the college dropped the fewest number of students for non-payment for a spring semester. Her actions demonstrated that while we all work separately, Lincoln Land staff comes together as a team when needed. We could not have done it without you. We appreciate your assistance!

Nominee: Diane Clark, Assistant Director, PRM

Nominator: Lynn Whalen, Executive Director, PRM

For 28+ years of dedication to Lincoln Land Community College and its students, always giving your all to make LLCC shine. I can't wait to see what your next adventure is. You will be greatly missed!

Nominee: Michelle Coakes, Art Professor, Arts and Humanities

Nominator: LLCC Foundation staff

This art faculty member worked with her students to produce quality craftsmanship and beautiful art for the recent "Winter Blues" and Winter Art Sale. She went above and beyond to ensure a successful winter art sale with funds benefitting students and the Philip and Mary Kathryn Trutter Museum. The additional work on her part from creating the art, setting up, tearing down, and ensuring that students had a real-life out-of-classroom experience is commendable. The students experienced running a business including bookkeeping and communicating with customers and guests. The passion she infuses in her students encourages this type of volunteer participation by students. Kudos!

Nominee: Connie Costello, Nursing Assistant Professor, Health Professions

Nominator: Valerie Wright, Associate Dean of Nursing, Health Professions

Thanks for all of your help with the ACEN self-study! Your contributions to the document were truly invaluable!

Nominee: Culinary Arts Program

Nominator: LLCC Foundation Staff

The staff, faculty and students in the Culinary Program and Culinary Institute consistently go above and beyond to help ensure that LLCC Foundation events are outstanding! From food to service to an overall wonderful experience for guests and donors, these individuals deserve Kudos! Many of these events run late into the evenings and on weekends. Their professionalism and consistent "how do we make this happen" attitude deserves to be commended. Kudos!

Nominee: Culinary Institute

Nominator: LLCC Foundation Staff

The staff, faculty and students in the Culinary Program and Culinary Institute consistently go above and beyond to help ensure that LLCC Foundation events are outstanding! From food to service to an overall wonderful experience for guests and donors, these individuals deserve Kudos! Many of these events run late into the evenings and on weekends. Their professionalism and consistent "how do we make this happen" attitude deserves to be commended. Kudos!

Nominee: Stephanie Cummings, Placement and Testing Coordinator, Placement and Testing

Nominator: Carrie Jacobs, Testing Assistant, Placement and Testing

Stephanie has really grown as a leader over the past year. She has brought about positive changes in our department, reached out to other areas to help improve communication and put up with me as her coworker. For all those things, especially the last one, Stephanie deserves a big 'ole LLCC pat on the back!!

Nominee: Dwayne Curry, Purchasing Manager, Finance

Nominator: Julie Eason, Assistant to the Vice President, Administrative Services

When I went to Dwayne for help with a situation, I was so impressed with how willing he was to assist me. He stopped everything he was doing to go through it with me. He made several phone calls and was very patient and professional. I appreciate that any time I work with Dwayne he is positive and helpful.

Nominee: Maureen Curry, Facilities Office Coordinator, Facilities Services

Nominator: Valarie Howse, Admission & Registration Services Representative, Student Services

I wanted to give a shout out to Maureen Curry for her dedication and help in getting things done for our department. She helped me out a great deal when we were getting the Admission/Records/Registration department together. A lot of moving and switching around took place and you stuck with me and helped us get it together. Thank you so much for your help and going that extra mile for us! Couldn't have accomplished anything without your help! Much appreciated!

Nominee: Nancy Derrig, Nursing Professor, Health Professions

Nominator: Valerie Wright, Associate Dean of Nursing, Health Professions

Thanks for all of your help with the ACEN self-study! Your contributions to the document were truly invaluable!

Nominee: Julie Eason, Assistant to the Vice President, Administrative Services

Nominator: Karie Longhta, Associate Vice President, Finance; Robin Ackman, Student Accounts Manager, Finance

In an effort to minimize the number of students the college would drop for non-payment, the college launched a calling campaign to remind our students that tuition was due on Dec. 2. There were 900+ students who needed to be called individually. With the number of students that needed to be contacted, we asked for assistance. Because Julie agreed to help, we completed the calling campaign. As a result, the college dropped the fewest number of students for non-payment for a spring semester. Her actions demonstrated that while we all work separately, Lincoln Land staff comes together as a team when needed. We could not have done it without you. We appreciate your assistance!

Nominee: Libby Elder, Accounting Specialist, Finance

Nominator: Karie Longhta, Associate Vice President, Finance; Robin Ackman, Student Accounts Manager, Finance

In an effort to minimize the number of students the college would drop for non-payment, the college launched a calling campaign to remind our students that tuition was due on Dec. 2. There were 900+ students who needed to be called individually. With the number of students that needed to be contacted, we asked for assistance. Because Libby agreed to help, we completed the calling campaign. As a result, the college dropped the fewest number of students for non-payment for a spring semester. Her actions demonstrated that while we all work separately, Lincoln Land staff comes together as a team when needed. We could not have done it without you. We appreciate your assistance!

Nominee: Ada Fleearty, Career Development Specialist, Advising/Counseling/Career Development

Nominator: Karie Longhta, Associate Vice President, Finance; Robin Ackman, Student Accounts Manager, Finance

In an effort to minimize the number of students the college would drop for non-payment, the college launched a calling campaign to remind our students that tuition was due on Dec. 2. There were 900+ students who needed to be called individually. With the number of students that needed to be contacted, we asked for assistance. Because Ada agreed to help, we completed the calling campaign. As a result, the college dropped the fewest number of students for non-payment for a spring semester. Her actions demonstrated that while we all work separately, Lincoln Land staff comes together as a team when needed. We could not have done it without you. We appreciate your assistance!

Nominee: Sharon Fritts, Nursing Program Assistant, Health Professions

Nominator: Valerie Wright, Associate Dean of Nursing, Health Professions

Thanks for all of your help with the ACEN self-study! Your contributions to the document were truly invaluable!

Nominee: Suellen Funk, Nursing Professor, Health Professions

Nominator: Valerie Wright, Associate Dean of Nursing, Health Professions

Thanks for all of your help with the ACEN self-study! Your contributions to the document were truly invaluable!

Nominee: Melissa Glossop, Nursing Skills Lab Professional, Health Professions

Nominator: Valerie Wright, Associate Dean of Nursing, Health Professions

Thanks for all of your help in the lab this semester! We are truly blessed to have you working with our students in the lab! You rock!!

Nominee: Mary Goldstein, Nursing Professor, Health Professions

Nominator: Britta Lothary, Nursing Instructor, Health Professions

This job is different than other jobs I have had because of people like Mary. The healthcare field is a very demanding place and often you either sink or swim; no one is normally there to make sure you at least float. I have been in the clinical setting with first and second semester LLCC nursing students at both St. Johns and MMC since fall of 2013. However, this unit at MMC was different. As a nurse for 7 years, I personally felt overwhelmed at the fast pace of this unit let alone be responsible for nursing students on this unit. I spoke with Mary regarding my concerns since I knew that she has done many clinical rotations on this unit. She gave me some really good tips and pointers, but it was what happened the next day that blew me away. She approached me and offered to spend my first clinical day on the unit with me. I couldn't believe it! She showed up that day at 5:30 a.m. and gave me advice that was beyond welcome. What was even more amazing was she stayed with me all day and into the afternoon to review some things with me on how the day went, and adjustments I could make. It is people like Mary Goldstein that LLCC is lucky to have...I know I'm sure lucky to have her.

Nominee: Mary Goldstein, Nursing Professor, Health Professions

Nominator: Valerie Wright, Associate Dean of Nursing, Health Professions

Thanks for all of your help with the ACEN self-study! Your contributions to the document were truly invaluable!

Nominee: Christa Gorman, Nursing Assistant Professor, Health Professions

Nominator: Valerie Wright, Associate Dean of Nursing, Health Professions

Thanks for all of your help with the ACEN self-study! Your contributions to the document were truly invaluable!

Nominee: Steven Handy, Grounds Maintenance Supervisor, Facilities Services

Nominator: Valarie Howse, Admission & Registration Services Representative, Student Services

I wanted to give a shout out to Steven Handy for his dedication and help in getting things done for our department. He helped me out a great deal when we were getting the Admission/Records/Registration department together. A lot of moving and switching around took place and you stuck with me and helped us get it together. Thank you so much for your help and going that extra mile for us! Couldn't have accomplished anything without your help! Much appreciated!

Nominee: Bill Harmon, Agronomy Professor, Business and Technologies

Nominator: Karen Sanders, Executive Director, Foundation; Barb Eades, Assistant Director, Foundation

For always going above and beyond for current and future students. Bill consistently develops new ideas to recruit new students, including planning and implementing the Ag Program Career Expo. Bill is always "on call" for students whether a parent or student is texting or calling him at 8 p.m. or on a weekend and he is making arrangements to meet with them the next day. Kudos to Bill!

Nominee: Carrie Henry, Administrative Assistant to the Dean, Math and Sciences

Nominator: Anonymous

Carrie takes care of all of our requests and questions with a great attitude and a smile. She is an asset to our department.

Nominee: Matt Hobrock, Property Control Technician, Finance

Nominator: Valarie Howse, Admission & Registration Services Representative, Student Services

I wanted to give a shout out to Matt Hobrock for his dedication and expertise in getting things done and right, the first time. Matt helped me out a great deal when we were getting the Admission/Records/Registration department together. He stuck with me and helped me get it all together and presentable. He knows how to get things done and knows his operation well. He is patient, kind, funny and professional. He is a great person to work with! Matt, thank you so much for your help! Couldn't have accomplished anything without your help! Much appreciated!

Nominee: Valarie Howse, Admission & Registration Services Representative, Student Services

Nominator: Doris Williams, Dual Credit Program Specialist, LLCC Outreach

Some time ago Val took on the task of maintaining the registration files for the Dual Credit Program. This is in addition to her regular job duties. Every time I need to search the files for a student's information, I go confidently knowing that the files are complete and accurate. This relieves what could be a stressful task when students, instructors, and/or parents are calling with issues related to dual credit registration. Thanks, Val!!!

Nominee: Tracy Kesinger, Nursing Professor, Health Professions

Nominator: Valerie Wright, Associate Dean of Nursing, Health Professions

Thanks for all of your help with the ACEN self-study! Your contributions to the document were truly invaluable!

Nominee: Sonja Koontz, Nursing Professor, Health Professions

Nominator: Valerie Wright, Associate Dean of Nursing, Health Professions

Thanks for all of your help with the ACEN self-study! Your contributions to the document were truly invaluable!

Nominee: Britta Lothary, Nursing Instructor, Health Professions

Nominator: Valerie Wright, Associate Dean of Nursing, Health Professions

Thanks for all of your help with the ACEN self-study! Your contributions to the document were truly invaluable!

Nominee: Dr. Cynthia Maskey, Dean, Health Professions

Nominator: Valerie Wright, Associate Dean of Nursing, Health Professions

Thanks for all of your help with the ACEN self-study! Words cannot express how much I appreciate all of the nights and weekends you worked on this project! Your contributions to the document were truly invaluable!

Nominee: Megan McCann, Database and Financial Reporting Analyst, Finance

Nominator: Robin Ackman, Student Accounts Manager, Finance

Megan is a wonderful asset to Lincoln Land Community College. As the Budget and Business offices were combined to make the Finance Department, she was and continues to be instrumental in converting several processes from paper to electronic format for the Student Accounts team. Additionally, she has thought of ways to help streamline our current electronic processes. Without her dedication and willingness to help others, several of our processes would take much more time and leave more room for human error. Thank you, Megan!

Nominee: Jamie McCoy, Academic Success Professional, Center for Academic Success

Nominator: Valerie Wright, Associate Dean of Nursing, Health Professions

Jamie - thanks so much for all that you do for our nursing students. I hear over and over again - "I would not have made it through the nursing program without Jamie!" What an affirmation for all of your hard work and dedication to our students! Jamie - you ROCK!!!

Nominee: Dr. Brenda Michel, Nursing Professor, Health Professions

Nominator: Valerie Wright, Associate Dean of Nursing, Health Professions

Thanks for all of your help with the ACEN self-study! Your contributions to the document were truly invaluable!

Nominee: Ashley Miller, Administrative Assistant to the Dean, Health Professions

Nominator: Valerie Wright, Associate Dean of Nursing, Health Professions

Thanks for all of your help with the ACEN self-study! Your contributions to the document were truly invaluable!

Nominee: Andres Morales, Building Custodian, Facilities Services

Nominator: Greg Walbert, Graphic Design Manager, PRM

Andres went out of his way to notify me one evening that my wallet had fallen to the floor in the office. He didn't want me to be worried and not be able to find it! THAT is consideration above and beyond! THANKS, Andres!

Nominee: Janet Moulton, Nursing Associate Professor, Health Professions

Nominator: Valerie Wright, Associate Dean of Nursing, Health Professions

Thanks for all of your help with the ACEN self-study! Your contributions to the document were truly invaluable!

Nominee: Tamie Penning, Project and Web Service Manager, ITS

Nominator: Amy Williams, Assistant to the Vice President, Academic Services

I work with Tamie on several projects and she is always courteous, efficient, and a team player. I have requests that are time sensitive and she is diligent in getting me the information that I need. She is always a pleasure to work with.

Nominee: Patty Petersen, Nursing Program Assistant, Health Professions

Nominator: Valerie Wright, Associate Dean of Nursing, Health Professions

Thanks for all of your help with the ACEN self-study! Words cannot express how much I appreciate all of the nights and weekends you worked on this project! Your contributions (especially your snazzy formatting) to the document were truly invaluable!

Nominee: Karrie Prescott, Administrative Assistant to the Dean, Math and Sciences

Nominator: Anonymous

Karrie is always ready to help and does a great job.

Nominee: Mary Russo, Nursing Professor, Health Professions

Nominator: Valerie Wright, Associate Dean of Nursing, Health Professions

Thanks for all of your help with the ACEN self-study! Your contributions to the document were truly invaluable!

Nominee: Donna Satterlee, Nursing Professor, Health Professions

Nominator: Valerie Wright, Associate Dean of Nursing, Health Professions

Thanks for all of your help with the ACEN self-study! Your contributions to the document were truly invaluable!

Nominee: Al Shull, Art Professor, Arts and Humanities

Nominator: Anonymous

This afternoon, I witnessed three dedicated faculty members (Thom Whalen, Al Shull, Leslie Stalter) working to prepare student art work for the "Winter Blues" Art Sale in support of the Philip and Mary Kathryn Trutter Museum. They were collecting, organizing, and shrink wrapping photographs, silk screened prints and cards, and numerous other items for the sale. Their focus on students and their devotion to creating both learning opportunities and avenues to showcase student art work should be commended.

Nominee: Al Shull, Art Professor, Art and Humanities

Nominator: LLCC Foundation Staff

This art faculty member worked with his students to produce quality craftsmanship and beautiful art for the recent "Winter Blues" and Winter Art Sale. He went above and beyond to ensure a successful winter art sale with funds benefitting students and the Philip and Mary Kathryn Trutter Museum. The additional work on his part from creating the art, setting up, tearing down, and ensuring that students had a real-life out-of-classroom experience is commendable. The students experienced running a business including bookkeeping and communicating with customers and guests. The passion he infuses in his students encourages this type of volunteer participation by students. Kudos!

Nominee: Leslie Stalter, Art Professor, Arts and Humanities

Nominator: Anonymous

This afternoon, I witnessed three dedicated faculty members (Thom Whalen, Al Shull, Leslie Stalter) working to prepare student art work for the "Winter Blues" Art Sale in support of the Philip and Mary Kathryn Trutter Museum. They were collecting, organizing, and shrink wrapping photographs, silk screened prints and cards, and numerous other items for the sale. Their focus on students and their devotion to creating both learning opportunities and avenues to showcase student art work should be commended.

Nominee: Leslie Stalter, Art Professor, Arts and Humanities

Nominator: LLCC Foundation Staff

This art faculty member worked with her students to produce quality craftsmanship and beautiful art for the recent "Winter Blues" and Winter Art Sale. She went above and beyond to ensure a successful winter art sale with funds benefitting students and the Philip and Mary Kathryn Trutter Museum. The additional work on her part from creating the art, setting up, tearing down, and ensuring that students had a real-life out-of-classroom experience is commendable. The students experienced running a business including bookkeeping and communicating with customers and guests. The passion she infuses in her students encourages this type of volunteer participation by students. Kudos!

Nominee: Jennifer Thornton, Nursing Program Assistant, Health Professions

Nominator: Valerie Wright, Associate Dean of Nursing, Health Professions

Thanks for all of your help with the ACEN self-study! Your contributions to the document were truly invaluable!

Nominee: Theresa Till, Nursing Professor, Health Professions

Nominator: Valerie Wright, Associate Dean of Nursing, Health Professions

Thanks for all of your help with the ACEN self-study! Your contributions to the document were truly invaluable!

Nominee: Paula Vehlow, Nursing Professor, Health Professions

Nominator: Valerie Wright, Associate Dean of Nursing, Health Professions

Thanks for all of your help with the ACEN self-study! Your contributions to the document were truly invaluable!

Nominee: Danyle Watkins, Early Childhood Education Instructor, Social Sciences

Nominator: Rose Raikes, Marketing and Communications Coordinator, PRM

Danyle took time to speak with two students and their family members during a campus tour I was giving, providing valuable information about Early Childhood Education programs and career choices. The students were so excited to get started at LLCC after that visit. Thank you so much for helping our recruitment efforts!

Nominee: Thom Whalen, Art Professor, Arts and Humanities

Nominator: Anonymous

This afternoon, I witnessed three dedicated faculty members (Thom Whalen, Al Shull, Leslie Stalter) working to prepare student art work for the "Winter Blues" Art Sale in support of the Philip and Mary Kathryn Trutter Museum. They were collecting, organizing, and shrink wrapping photographs, silk screened prints and cards, and numerous other items for the sale. Their focus on students and their devotion to creating both learning opportunities and avenues to showcase student art work should be commended.

Nominee: Thom Whalen, Art Professor, Arts and Humanities

Nominator: LLCC Foundation Staff

This art faculty member worked with his students to produce quality craftsmanship and beautiful art for the recent "Winter Blues" and Winter Art Sale. He went above and beyond to ensure a successful winter art sale with funds benefitting students and the Philip and Mary Kathryn Trutter Museum. The additional work on his part from creating the art, setting up, tearing down, and ensuring that students had a real-life out-of-classroom experience is commendable. The students experienced running a business including bookkeeping and communicating with customers and guests. The passion he infuses in his students encourages this type of volunteer participation by students. Kudos!

Nominee: Amy Williams, Assistant to the Vice President, Academic Services

Nominator: Anonymous

Amy does a great job managing the many processes and projects in the Academic Services Division. She works well with many constituencies - faculty, staff, students, and the community. She is friendly, helpful, and if she doesn't know the answer to a question she will research it and get back to you. LLCC is very fortunate to have someone with Amy's work ethic and dedication. She is very deserving of a KUDOS award!

Nominee: Leon Williams, Assistant Professor, Collision Repair Technology

Nominator: Valarie Howse, Admission & Registration Services Representative, Student Services

I wanted to give a shout out to Leon Williams for his help in our department. He helped me out a great deal when we were getting the Admission/Records/Registration department together. A lot of moving and switching around took place. He was right there in the middle of a dilemma, and stepped right in and worked it out for us. Thank you so much for your help and going that extra mile for us! I could not have accomplished anything without your help! I appreciate you stepping in, fixing our problem and making it work. I appreciate you! Thanks, again!