An Evening with the Authors

The Historical Society is hosting a dinner with Dr. McDonald and Dr. Kennedy at Tiramisu' at 137 North Third Street in Quincy at 5 pm following the event at the History Museum. Enjoy delicious Italian cuisine and amazing conversation with two prize winning authors. Seating for the "Evening with the Authors" is very limited so please call the Historical Society's office at (217) 222-1835 to purchase tickets. Tickets are only $20 each or $35 for couples.

Dr. Chris
McDonald

Dr. McDonald is a senior political science professor at Lincoln Land Community College in Springfield, Illinois. He is the author of Three Lying or Four Sitting – From the Front in a Ford, which details the combat experience of Kent Dunlap Hagler of Springfield, Illinois. Dr. McDonald spent extensive time reviewing the letters of Mr. Hagler and offers a very personal and amazing wartime account of a young man from Central Illinois in war-torn Europe. McDonald has a Ph.D. in political science and government from the University of Georgia and was named a Pearson Master Teacher at Lincoln Land Community College in 2001.

Dr. Ross
Kennedy

Dr. Ross Kennedy is a professor of History at Illinois State University in Bloomington, Illinois. He is the award-winning author of The Will to Believe: Woodrow Wilson, World War I, and America's Strategy for Peace and Security. Dr. Kennedy is also an editor of A Companion to Woodrow Wilson published in 2013. He has done extensive research on World War I, U.S. foreign policy, and international history from 1914-1965. He was awarded the Scott Bills Prize for Best Book in Peace History in 2010 for his work on Woodrow Wilson. Dr. Kennedy has a Ph.D. in History from the University of California, Berkeley.
