

Lincoln Land Community College

October 2021 Award Winners

Nominee: Robin Ackman, Registrar, Records

Nominator: Dr. Joel Dykstra, Dean of English and Humanities

Robin provided assistance and advice for scheduling issues and student records concerns over the summer when the administrative assistant for English and Humanities was on leave.

Nominee: Robin Ackman, Registrar, Records

Nominator: Claire Heffron-Mckinney, Student Success Coach

Robin recently went above and beyond to help 2 students I was working with. I appreciate Robin's dedication to students and her willingness to help. Thanks for all you do, Robin!

Nominee: Mack Alexander, Building Custodian, Facilities Services

Nominator: Anonymous

Mack always goes above and beyond to make sure our areas are clean, tidy and safe. From sanitizing surfaces, dusting and even wiping off our monitor screens, his hard work and friendly demeanor are very much appreciated!

Nominee: Holly Bauman, Agriculture Program Specialist, Natural and Agricultural Sciences

Nominator: Dr. Lesley Frederick, Vice President of Student Services

A big thanks to Holly for assisting with the agriculture session during the Career Launch program. Career Launch is a long-standing partnership with the Boys & Girls Club of Central Illinois where teens are introduced to a variety of careers and career exploration activities during the 8-week camp. I appreciate Holly taking time out of her summer schedule to be part of this very important program.

Nominee: Alex Berry, Director, Student Success

Nominator: Nikki Baker, Adjunct Instructor

When Alex's name is on my task list, I smile because I know when I contact him I will get a complete answer to my question, solid support and dependable follow-through, and an opportunity to smile or laugh. He takes the responsibilities with which he is entrusted seriously and makes the process enjoyable. Delightful.

Nominee: Lori Badgley, Adjunct Instructor, Health Professions

Nominator: Dr. Lesley Frederick, Vice President of Student Services

Thank you for your assistance with the annual Career Launch program, a partnership between LLCC and the Boys & Girls Club of Central Illinois. The teen participants have the opportunity to explore numerous career pathways during the 8-week program. I appreciate your support of the program and providing invaluable opportunities for these young adults to engage in career exploration opportunities! Thank you for going above and beyond the call of duty!

Nominee: Andrew Blaylock, Director, Campus Services

Nominator: Carley Young, Student Success Coach

First off, KUDOS to the whole Bookstore staff for assisting so many students with orders in August! Andrew went above and beyond to assist a student of mine with receiving her access code for a book she needed while he was right in the middle of another project. Your assistance was greatly appreciated. Thank you, Andrew!

Nominee: Ira Bradley, Building Custodian, Facilities Services

Nominator: Janelle Murphy, Program Director, Radiography

I was so thankful to Ira when the radiography classroom needed an "immediate" carpet cleaning. He stepped right up and said he'd make it happen! And he did! Ira Bradley definitely deserves a KUDOS for this kind act as well as everything else he does to help make our campus wonderful!

Nominee: Dr. Victor Broderick, Dean of Social Sciences and Business

Nominator: Anonymous

Thank you so very much for keeping the department afloat, especially during these difficult times. Thank you for always advocating for us, and for always being so understanding of everyone's needs. You are a great boss and an amazing leader, and we are very lucky to have you here.

Nominee: DaRon Brown, Student Success Coach, Student Success

Nominator: Dr. Lesley Frederick, Vice President of Student Services

Ron was sucked into Career Launch to serve as the "keynote" speaker for the Career Launch "Power of Networking" wrap up session. I appreciate him rolling up his sleeves and jumping in! His personal story is powerful and one that is very relatable to the Career Launch teens.

Nominee: Mackenzie Bryant, Program Assistant, Student Success

Nominator: Amy Flynn, Public Relations and Marketing Assistant

Mackenzie went above and beyond during Welcome Week by covering multiple shifts as a greeter. She helped several students find their classes and did so with a smile and warm welcome. I greatly appreciate her assistance and kindness to students and others during a busy week welcoming everyone to the fall semester!

Nominee: Dean Butzow, Professor of Geography, Natural and Agricultural Sciences

Nominator: Dr. Lesley Frederick, Vice President of Student Services

A big thanks to Dean for assisting with the GIS session during the Career Launch program. Career Launch is a long-standing partnership with the Boys & Girls Club of Central Illinois where teens are introduced to a variety of careers and career exploration activities during the 8-week camp. I appreciate Dean taking time out of his summer schedule to be part of this very important program.

Nominee: Nichole Coffey, Student Accounts Manager, Finance

Nominator: Alison Mills, Director, Financial Aid

Nichole assisted a student in need by manually issuing her Higher Education Emergency funds. The student had made a special trip to campus to pick up some items, and Nichole was able to print her check so the student could pick that up as well. I appreciate Nichole's assistance with this student and her willingness to go above and beyond for our students.

Nominee: Lyndsey Craigmiles-Brooks, Administrative Assistant, LLCC-Medical District

Nominator: Amy Flynn, Public Relations and Marketing Assistant

Lyndsey covered multiple shifts on the busiest day of Welcome Week without hesitation. She greeted students with a warm, friendly smile and had an upbeat "hi there," and escorted several students to their class. Her assistance was greatly appreciated and helped students get a great start to the fall semester!

Nominee: Rey DeCastro, Adjunct Instructor, Natural and Agricultural Sciences

Nominator: Dean Butzow, Professor of Geography

I want to thank Rey de Castro for helping lead the GIS workshop we gave to the Frontiers International students. Rey gave a great demo of a drone which was enjoyed by the students. Thanks for your time Rey!

Nominee: Gailyn Draper, Assistant to the Vice President, Student Services

Nominator: Dr. Lesley Frederick, Vice President of Student Services

Gailyn went above and beyond while supporting the Career Launch summer program with the Boys & Girls Club. I appreciate her patience, creativity and sense of humor in dealing with all the last minute "little stuff" to prepare for the Career Launch Wrap-Up Session.

Nominee: Dr. Joel Dykstra, Dean of English and Humanities

Nominator: Anonymous

Dr. Dykstra devoted a significant amount of time and energy this past year to leading the Writing Center and its staff through a long overdue program review. His investment in this project and in the Writing Center as a whole is greatly appreciated.

Nominee: Tiffany Elliott, Writing Center Specialist, English and Humanities

Nominator: Laurenn York, Instructor, English

With little notice, Tiffany taught my English 101 class on the FIRST day of the semester after learning that I was unable to due to a COVID concern. While stepping in for a colleague is always appreciated, Tiffany went well beyond this. She was the first face to welcome my students, and she ensured their learning progressed by covering the planned curriculum. She's a phenomenal educator who made sure my students returned to campus with a sense of normalcy.

Nominee: Nick Ferreira, Program Director, Emergency Services and Health

Nominator: Dr. Lesley Frederick, Vice President of Student Services

Thank you for your assistance with the annual Career Launch program, a partnership between LLCC and the Boys & Girls Club of Central Illinois. The teen participants have the opportunity to explore numerous career pathways during the 8-week program. I appreciate your support of the program and providing invaluable opportunities for these young adults to engage in career exploration opportunities! Thank you for going above and beyond the call of duty!

Nominee: Adrienne Frazier, Education Services Representative, LLCC-Litchfield

Nominator: Jessie Blackburn, Director, LLCC-Litchfield

Adrienne has gone above and beyond in her responsibilities and dedication to the Litchfield center, our students, and community recently in her flexibility while our front desk was being renovated, and willingness to work extra to accommodate for bookstore services, community events and now COVID testing on site. She is a true team player, and I appreciate her very much!

Nominee: Leigh Giles-Brown, Program Director, Diagnostic Medical Sonography, Health Professions

Nominator: Dr. Lesley Frederick, Vice President of Student Services

Thank you for your assistance with the annual Career Launch program, a partnership between LLCC and the Boys & Girls Club of Central Illinois. I appreciate your support of the program and providing invaluable opportunities for these young adults to engage in career exploration opportunities! Thank you for going above and beyond the call of duty!

Nominee: Brooke Greenwood, Nursing Skills Lab Professional, Health Professions

Nominator: Joi Kazenski, Professor of Nursing

Brooke has been very helpful in nursing simulation lab. She has caught on fast in her new role. Each week she is organized, positive and a team player.

Nominee: Bill Harmon, Professor of Agronomy, Natural and Agricultural Sciences

Nominator: Dr. Lesley Frederick, Vice President of Student Services

A big thanks to Bill for assisting with the agriculture session during the Career Launch program. Career Launch is a long-standing partnership with the Boys & Girls Club of Central Illinois where teens are introduced to a variety of careers and career exploration activities during the 8-week camp. I appreciate Bill taking time out of his summer schedule to be part of this very important program.

Nominee: Claire Heffron-McKinney, Student Success Coach, Student Success

Nominator: Alison Mills, Director, Financial Aid

Claire assisted a student in need with the completion of the application for Foundation Emergency funds and obtained some food items and food assistance from the LLCC food pantry for the student. Claire even purchased some cleaning and toiletry items for the student using her own money. I appreciate her assistance and her willingness to go above and beyond for our students.

Nominee: Casey Hoenes, Assistant Professor of Nursing, Health Professions

Nominator: Dr. Sonja Spencer, Associate Dean of Nursing

Casey goes above and beyond to help out his colleagues and his students. He was recently praised by nurses at the hospital for respect and patience he displays to his students while in clinical. He has also been asked last-minute to cover clinical shifts and has graciously accepted. Casey is a great asset to our nursing program, and I am so happy he's a part of the team!

Nominee: Cathy Huffman, Career Coach, Student Services

Nominator: Dr. Lesley Frederick, Vice President of Student Services

I appreciate Cathy's ideas and energy in working with the Career Launch program this summer. She went above and beyond the call of duty to support our planning efforts to make Career Launch a big success this summer!

Nominee: Kathleen Jacoby, Police Officer, LLCCPD

Nominator: Mary Goldstein, Professor of Nursing

I had a student trip and spill her drink at the LLCC Medical District. Kathleen stayed with the student to be sure she was okay, then purchased another drink for the student! She went above and beyond to make one of our students feel better.

Nominee: Leslie Johnson, Assistant Vice President, Student Success

Nominator: Dr. Lesley Frederick, Vice President, Student Services

I very much appreciate Leslie for her troubleshooting ability. She had to jump in several times this summer to assist with the Career Launch program with little or no notice. Leslie's can-do attitude, problem solving and "stick-to-it-ness" were key to helping the Career Launch Program be successful this summer.

Nominee: Nina Koch, Records Specialist, Records

Nominator: Dr. Joel Dykstra, Dean of English and Humanities

Nina provided assistance and advice for many schedule changes over the summer in English and Humanities while the Administrative Assistant was out on leave.

Nominee: Diane Liesen, Program Director, Neurodiagnostic Technology, Health Professions

Nominator: Dr. Lesley Frederick, Vice President of Student Services

Thank you for your assistance with the annual Career Launch program, a partnership between LLCC and the Boys & Girls Club of Central Illinois. The teen participants have the opportunity to explore numerous career pathways during the 8-week program. I appreciate your support of the program and providing invaluable opportunities for these young adults to engage in career exploration opportunities! Thank you for going above and beyond the call of duty!

Nominee: LLCC Building Custodians, Facilities Services

Nominator: LLCC Human Resources

The Human Resources office would like to thank Mack Alexander, Dan Jett and the rest of the building custodians at LLCC for keeping our offices sanitized and safe. Mack and Dan can be found wiping down surfaces, cleaning door handles and just over all making LLCC a safe working environment for staff, faculty and students every single day. We are extremely thankful for your hard work and commitment to making LLCC a safe working environment. HR appreciates all you do!

Nominee: LLCC-Jacksonville Staff

Nominator: Keri Mason, Director, LLCC-Jacksonville

Thanks to the entire LLCC-Jacksonville staff for their help getting ready for the Board of Trustees meeting. Rick and Jennifer — thank you so much for all of your work getting the room set up perfectly. Jennifer – thank you for being such a great tour guide. Katie, Sue, Jennifer, Scott and Lori — thank you for staying for the reception. You guys are the greatest!

Nominee: Brenda Loschen, Administrative Assistant to the Dean, Arts and Communication

Nominator: Nikki Baker, Adjunct Instructor

Brenda juggles so many tasks and responds to inquiries as if your question was the one she was waiting for. In routine emails, she uses language that recognizes and connects with the person on the receiving end. Brenda answers questions thoroughly. Recently, when I asked about a process to support a class, she answered the question, anticipated the next steps, and proactively handled the process. I can always anticipate a smile and an answer.

Nominee: Paula Luebbert, Assistant Vice President of Corporate/Government Training and Economic Development, LLCC-Medical District

Nominator: Mary Goldstein, Professor of Nursing

I had a student trip at the LLCC Medical District and drop her belongings/spill her drink. Paula was so kind, offering to help the student in any way possible. She also followed up with me later to be sure that the student was OK.

Nominee: Christine Marietta, Administrative Assistant, LLCC-Litchfield

Nominator: Jessie Blackburn, Director, LLCC-Litchfield

Christine has gone above and beyond in her dedication to the Litchfield center and our students and community recently in her flexibility while our front desk was being renovated and work schedule changes that were made to accommodate for bookstore services, community events, and now COVID testing on site. She is a true leader for our team in all that we do, and I appreciate her so much!

Nominee: Clayton Mason, Data Warehouse Analyst, Institutional Research & Effectiveness

Nominator: Leslie Johnson, Assistant Vice President of Student Success

Clayton has been working on reports to help identify students who are vaccinated or choosing to be tested weekly. He has done a great job listening to what information is available and finding resourceful ways to build us reports. Clayton has also pivoted when a last-minute change to a report is needed. He even volunteered to help us with a report while on his vacation. Kudos to Clayton for going above and beyond on this project! Thank you!

Nominee: Jennifer Meyer, Education Services Representative, LLCC-Jacksonville

Nominator: Nikki Baker, Adjunct Instructor

Jennifer is welcoming to all who enter the Jacksonville location. She is a wealth of information and willingly shares it to help instructors and students. She answers questions fully and offers related information. She juggles a number of tasks and still offers assistance to help. It feels great to have a person who will answer or direct you to an answer you can depend on. I know if I ask Jennifer, I will get the answer I need.

Nominee: Rebecca Miller, Associate Professor of Psychology, Social Sciences and Business

Nominator: Anonymous

Thank you for everything you do for our department and school! Your hard work is truly appreciated. Thank you!

Nominee: Tisha Miller, Enrollment Coordinator, LLCC-Taylorville/Litchfield

Nominator: Jessie Blackburn, Director, LLCC-Litchfield

Tisha has gone above and beyond in her dedication to the Litchfield center, our students, and community recently in her flexibility while our front desk was being renovated, and her willingness to change her schedule when needed, plus work extra hours to attend events for our community and local schools. She is a true team player and leader in all that she does, and I appreciate her so much!

Nominee: Patrick Moore, Director of Concurrent Enrollment, Student Services

Nominator: Dr. Lesley Frederick, Vice President of Student Services

I appreciate Patrick's involvement in the Career Launch program. He was ever present at the many Career Launch sessions and provided positive role modeling and engagement for the Career Launch participants. I appreciate his ideas, creativity and energy in supporting the Career Launch program.

Nominee: Janelle Murphy, Program Director, Radiography, Health Professions

Nominator: Dr. Lesley Frederick, Vice President of Student Services

Thank you for your assistance with the annual Career Launch program, a partnership between LLCC and the Boys & Girls Club of Central Illinois. The teen participants have the opportunity to explore numerous career pathways during the 8-week program. I appreciate your support of the program and providing invaluable opportunities for these young adults to engage in career exploration opportunities! Thank you for going above and beyond the call of duty!

Nominee: Barbara Mustered, Academic Services Assistant, Academic Services

Nominator: Dr. Joel Dykstra, Dean of English and Humanities

Barbara stepped in to help with various departmental paperwork items while the Administrative Assistant for English and Humanities was on leave for six weeks.

Nominee: Ann Neilson, Assistant Professor of Diagnostic Medical Sonography, Health Professions

Nominator: Dr. Lesley Frederick, Vice President of Student Services

Thank you for your assistance with the annual Career Launch program, a partnership between LLCC and the Boys & Girls Club of Central Illinois. The teen participants have the opportunity to explore numerous career pathways during the 8-week program. I appreciate your support of the program and providing invaluable opportunities for these young adults to engage in career exploration opportunities! Thank you for going above and beyond the call of duty!

Nominee: Samuel Penning, System Administrator II, Information Technology

Nominator: Robin Ackman, Registrar, Records

Samuel always goes above and beyond when we reach out to him. Recently, we brought an ongoing situation to his attention, and he worked closely with staff to thoroughly understand the issue. He worked diligently to find the cause of the problem, kept staff updated and then suggested an alternative solution until the issue, which is outside of the college's control, is resolved. We are so thankful for Samuel and the assistance he continuously provides!

Nominee: Tamie Penning, System Administrator I, Information Technology

Nominator: Lindsey Weihmeir, Admission Specialist

Tamie worked diligently with me to help get our student worker set up and off to a great start. We encountered some issues, but Tamie was fast and responsive to find us a solution.

Nominee: Karen Riddell, Program Assistant, Adult Education and Literacy

Nominator: Sue Alexander, Adult Education Coordinator

Karen has been in the Adult Ed office for a long time and keeps us all in line! She keeps track of everyone's birthday and makes sure that we remember these and other important dates. She is always courteous and professional. If any of us newbies need to know the next step to take in a process of Adult Ed., she's our go-to person!

Nominee: Ryan Roettgers, Building Custodian, LLCC-Litchfield

Nominator: Jessie Blackburn, Director, LLCC-Litchfield

Ryan has gone above and beyond recently in his dedication to the Litchfield center as we underwent several construction and building projects this summer. He was flexible in his own duties to help Gary move furniture, pack up and relocate items to new locations, and anything else extra that needed done during this time of renovation. I really appreciate his hard work and willingness to do whatever he can to assist in addition to his own responsibilities.

Nominee: Kyle Roughan, Student Engagement Coordinator, Student Life

Nominator: Dr. Lesley Frederick, Vice President of Student Services

Kyle got sucked into the planning team for the Career Launch program when he began employment at LLCC this summer. Despite being new to LLCC and the Career Launch program, Kyle rolled up his sleeves and assisted with various sessions, shared ideas for the wrap-up session and engaged with the Career Launch participants. I appreciate his effort and involvement!

Nominee: Kyle Roughan, Student Engagement Coordinator, Student Life

Nominator: Claire Heffron-Mckinney, Student Success Coach

Kyle is a wonderful addition to LLCC. I've only known him for a short time, but in that time, I've seen how willing he is to go above and beyond for our students. Thanks for all you do, Kyle!

Nominee: Irene Siewert, Program Assistant, Center for Academic Success

Nominator: Debra Coet, Academic Success Professional

Irene is at the hub of all that we do here in the CAS. Her helpful, cheerful, accepting attitude sets the tone for our department. Irene's willingness to assist students is contagious. She goes the extra mile to help students and staff succeed in our various endeavors.

Nominee: Bertha Sneyd, Program Assistant, Adult Education and Literacy

Nominator: Sue Alexander, Adult Education Coordinator

Bert always goes above and beyond to help the students, staff and teachers in the Adult Ed Program. She is unofficially our tech person when we need a little help and don't need to call IT. She is friendly and cheerful to everyone, so much so that the students know her by name! An added perk of working with Bert is that she also regularly provides her coworkers with coffee and fresh vegetables from her garden.

Nominee: Tom Spears, Workforce Development Program Coordinator, Workforce Institute

Nominator: Dr. Lesley Frederick, Vice President of Student Services

A big thanks to Tom for assisting with the construction trades session during the Career Launch program. Career Launch is a long-standing partnership with the Boys & Girls Club of Central Illinois where teens are introduced to a variety of careers and career exploration activities during the 8-week camp. I appreciate Tom taking time out of his summer schedule to be part of this very important program.

Nominee: Tom Spears, Workforce Development Program Coordinator, Workforce Institute

Nominator: Anonymous

Tom exemplifies what a community college employee should be. He is mission driven, willing to adapt and always looking for ways to help his students and the industry he trains them for.

Nominee: Tera Spellbrink, Adjunct Faculty Employment Coordinator, Human Resources

Nominator: Amy Williams, Assistant to the Vice President, Academic Services

I wanted to give a big shout to Tera Spellbrink for offering her assistance with entering adjunct assignments. I have helped cover leaves of absence in several instructional departments, I am not savvy on adjunct hiring or payment processes. Tera's willingness to jump in and take that responsibility on was a great help to me and the deans that I was supporting. Thank you, Tera, for helping to make sure adjuncts were paid accurately and on time!

Nominee: Tera Spellbrink, Adjunct Instructor Employment Coordinator, Human Resources

Nominator: Dr. Joel Dykstra, Dean of English and Humanities

Tera assisted English and Humanities in entering adjunct contracts for fall 2021 when our administrative assistant was on leave.

A big thanks to Tara for assisting with the criminal justice session during the Career Launch program. Career Launch is a long-standing partnership with the Boys & Girls Club of Central Illinois where teens are introduced to a variety of careers and career exploration activities during the 8-week camp. I appreciate Tara taking time out of her summer schedule to be part of this very important program.

Nominee: Mac Warren, Assistant Director, Recruitment and Response, Public Relations and Marketing

Nominator: Dean Butzow, Professor of Geography

I want to thank Mac Warren for coming to LLCC on Saturday, Sept. 18 to give a tour of the Workforce Institute building to the Frontiers International students after our GIS workshop. Thanks, Mac for your time and awesome tour!

Nominee: Gary Wendt, General Maintenance Technician, LLCC-Litchfield

Nominator: Jessie Blackburn, Director, LLCC-Litchfield

Gary has gone above and beyond recently in his leadership and dedication to the Litchfield center as we underwent several construction and building projects this summer. He was flexible in his own duties to help outside contractors as they came on campus, and was well organized in keeping up to date with the ever-changing timelines of completion. His knowledge and expertise are endless, and I appreciate him so much!

Nominee: Amy Williams, Assistant to the Vice President, Academic Services

Nominator: Dr. Joel Dykstra, Dean of English and Humanities

Amy stepped in to help with paperwork while the administrative assistant for English and Humanities was out on leave. She was especially helpful in processing fall contracts.

Nominee: Marina Wirsing, Career Coach, Student Services

Nominator: Dr. Lesley Frederick, Vice President of Student Services

I appreciate Marina's creativeness and enthusiasm in working with the Career Launch program this summer. Marina went above and beyond the call of duty to support our planning efforts to make Career Launch a big success this summer!
